Father and son pizza davis junction illinois

The setting inside is strange. Some booths, tables, games surrounded by bars. It doesn't scream family friendly at me. On the night we were there, I saw the saddest soup/salad bar ever! We didn't take part because I was afraid of how long things were... sit there for. We ordered: Pizza - cheese is way to thick, my daughter really started choking on it. We didn't ask for extras either! Wings - no one writes home about beer nuggets - no flavor, DeKalb not far away, someone should drive there & try some... If they're going to sell it! Burger - so much oil, it trickled down my hand Chicken Sandwich - my husband ate it, but nothing amazed him. He said the bread was hard. The waiter was very annoyed with talking to the booth behind us, we got the impression they were fixed & basically ignored us. I will miss this place! We waited a few minutes on arrival to sit down. After sitting down, we waited for a few more from our party. After waiting about 5 minutes the server finally took a drink order. He came back with our drink and was leaving when we stopped him and told him we were ready to order our food. I ordered fried fish (cod) which included a salad bar and wife ordered Italian Beef with onion rings, 2 pizzas also ordered as well as other fish dinners, and pork tenderloin. Italian beef is very large, as well as pieces of cod, tenderloin is about 8 in diameter, both pizzas are thin crusts. Salad bars are very limited, iceberg lettuce, sliced cucumber, mushrooms, grated cheese, coleslaw. The soup is French Onion, and broccoli cheese. French Onion Soup is great with a spicy kick to it, and our biggest critic of the group says that Broccoli Cheese soup is also gone. On average we all paid about $28.00 each for our food and drink. You go here on Friday making a reservation. My wife and I left on Saturday and it was empty, maybe we were early and may have picked up after we left.
